The use of foreign trade zones has long been hindered by a perceived complexity in managing these tools. However, automation systems can help unlock the latent advantages inherent in Foreign Trade Zones (FTZs).

Join Amber Road and AAFA for our upcoming webinar, Taking Advantage of Foreign Trade Zone Programs: Using Automation to Boost FTZ-Driven Savings, which will discuss the benefits of the FTZ model, the technologies available to manage them, and how apparel and footwear companies can incorporate FTZs into their global supply chain strategies.
