Customs Clearance - What, How and Best Practices

Thursday, October 13th, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. CDT / 12:00 p.m. EDT

Presented by Integration Point & Global Gate Mexico

Presented in Spanish

Foreign trade is like a machine, which must work perfectly for your success. Each stakeholder and the processes they are responsible for function as a large gear. And that large gear must work in sync with others, so that everything works in conjunction to keep the supply chain gears moving. Who is responsible for each process? What is the proper mode of transportation for my operation? What are the biggest mistakes companies make when clearing goods through customs? Should businesses use an automated system to manage its foreign trade transactions?

We invite you to join Integration Point and Global Gate Mexico to learn the answers to these questions and more during an educational webcast in Spanish on Thursday, October 13, 2016 at 11:00 am Central Time Mexico. Manolo De La Tijera, Director of Global Operations at Global Gate Mexico, will discuss the best practices that companies should follow in the clearance of their goods.

The topics covered in this free webcast include:

- What is customs clearance
- Key factors in the process of customs clearance, and who is responsible
