

Classification of Apparel in Chapters 61 and 62

Hosted by  Trade Advisory Practice

TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 2016
2:00PM EDT

The classification of apparel requires a solid understanding of the General Rules of Interpretation and strong knowledge of section and chapter notes. If you are an importer of textile and apparel, this webinar is for you!

Lana Shubinsky, Trade Advisory Consultant, Amber Road's Trade Advisory Practice, will provide practical advice on items to be classified in chapters 61 and 62. For example, When is a jacket really a jacket and when does a jacket become a blouse? Join us for tips and practical advice on how to master these chapters, and learn more about common items that may be excluded from this area as well.

Key topics to be covered include:

- Items that can be classed in Chapters 61 and 62
- Tips and techniques for properly classifying apparel products
- Customs enforcement of misclassifications and the cost to your firm

To register, please go to: <http://bit.ly/ClassificationofApparelWebinar>

Join us to learn how a complete understanding of classifying apparel can help maintain compliance and competitiveness within your organization!

Presenter:

Lana Shubinsky

Trade Advisory Consultant

Amber Road's Trade Advisory Practice

