

Comparing EU and US Export Controls

Hosted by  Trade Advisory Practice

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 2016
2:00PM EDT

During this webinar, we will review the similarities and differences between US and European export control legislation. This will include an overview of EU common rules and the different national flavors, the extraterritoriality impact of US Controls and how specific issues such as deemed export and re-export are addressed. In addition, we will also examine situations in which a business that is compliant with one set of rules (US or EU) may not be compliant with other rules.

Webinar highlights:

- EU dual use regulation
- EU common rules and the different national flavors
- US Controls and the impact of it extraterritoriality
- Unilateral nature of some US controls (product lists and sanctions)
- Enforcement and penalties/statute of limitations
- The meaning of being compliant (US vs. EU rules)
