NAFTZ's 29th ANNUAL SPRING SEMINAR • MAY 17-19, 2015 • TAMPA, FL

FTZs: Competitiveness & Compliance in Global Trade

This year's seminar, "FTZs: Competitiveness & Compliance in Global Trade," will equip operator/users and grantees to expand production and exports and attract investment through the FTZ program. The program will include key officials from Tampa and Washington, D.C., including Andrew McGilvray, Executive Secretary of the FTZ Board, and Paul Anderson, the Tampa Port Director.

Topics at the 2015 Spring Seminar include (but are not limited to):

- NEW ADVANCED TRACK! Dig deeper into specialized topics such as limiting exposure, advanced benefits of scrap & waste & destruction and zone to zone transfers
- Specialized tracks for Grantees, Operator/Users and those new to the industry
- FTZ Scope of Production Authority
- FTZ Board Update
- Innovative Tools to create an FTZ Cost-Benefit Analysis

Additionally, those in attendance can collect up to 12 CCS/CES and 13 CPE credits. Select the below links for more information.
