Encryption Export Controls 201: Exporting "Restricted" Encryption Products

Wednesday, December 2, 2015
12:00pm PST to 1:00pm PST
(3:00 PM EST to 4:00 PM EST)

Join us for this interactive webinar with Randy Wheeler (Director - Information Technology Controls Division, Bureau of Industry and Security, U.S. Department of Commerce) and Michael Pender (Senior Engineer) for an overview of Encryption Controls on "Restricted" Products with a focus on the fine points of License Exception ENC 740.17(b)(2), Government End-User & Encryption Licensing Arrangements (ELAs).

This "Encryption Controls 201" session will provide guidance on how to apply License Exception ENC 740.17(b)(2) and discuss:

- When and how License Exception ENC 740.17(b)(2) is available
- Definition of "Government End User"
- Best Practices to screen for a "Government End User"
- What is an Encryption Licensing Arrangement (ELA)
- When and how to use an Encryption Licensing Arrangement (ELA)
- And other related topics...
