

Role:

US Customs Program Manager

Location:

Southaven Mississippi, with possibility of working remotely

Qualifications:

- Licensed US Customs broker, preferred
- 5-10 years' experience working in a customs compliance capacity.
- Experienced in setting up and administering a Duty Drawback program
- Experienced in establishing or managing an FTZ site, preferred
- Proficient in designing and using ACE reports
- Proficient with MS Office suite

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Reviews import/export data with 3rd party vendors to prioritize drawback claims
- Coordinate US customs clearances with suppliers and brokers
- Review US customs entries for compliance
- Manages US custom broker relationships and agreements
- Will review requirements and plan for potential ISA participation
- Other Trade Compliance projects and tasks as required
- Will serve as principal US customs subject matter specialist for variety of other projects.

Supervisory:

Though the position doesn't immediately involve personnel management, over time the role may adapt to include some supervisory elements.

Travel:

This role will require some occasional business travel within the United States and Canada.

Contact:

Mark Nolan
Director Global Trade Compliance
Future Electronics
1-662-536-0401 ext.234
mark.nolan@futureelectronics.com