

Job Description

Peloton Commercial BU EMEA
Customs & Trade Operations Manager EMEA

Reporting to: Operations Manager EMEA
Location: Munich / Germany Remote
Contract: Permanent

Specific Requirements

The responsibilities would include, but are not limited to:

- Review current business flows to set & implement the strategy for Precor's EMEA Customs activity
- Oversee, monitor & audit the customs brokers' activity and review invoices
- Address daily shipment inquiries to ensure a smooth import/export process
- Optimize customs clearance processes to maintain the flow of shipments in a manner that is compliant and cost effective
- Establish Precor's ZA/SDE German Export license.
- Direct contact point for the customs authorities in case of questions or audit
- Monitor/Adapt customs requirements (Import and export within EMEA) to ensure compliance
- Develop and manage working relationships with Customs authorities, customs brokers and express couriers
- Ensure accurate & compliant Master Data for Harmonized Tariff Schedule Classification, Valuation & Country of Origin
- Responsible for the Group's VAT returns and other VAT declarations
- EC Sales list reporting
- Manage financial data in regards to VAT

Qualifications & Experience

- A degree in International Trade, Customs, Logistics or related business degree is a must
- German IHK Fachkraft Zoll certificate is a plus
- Minimum of 5 years Trade compliance experience in a similar role at an EMEA based Importer, Customs broker or Trade Compliance Consulting firm.
- In depth experience with HMRC/Zoll or Customs Agencies in Netherlands is required
- Thorough understanding of the harmonized tariff schedule
- Skillful use of Microsoft Office, Microsoft Excel
- Knowledge of SAP is an advantage
- German native speaker with fluent English
- Strong knowledge and experience with EU VAT matters
- Accounting or tax qualified preferred; Big 4 experience is advantage
- Experience in EMEA duty drawback programs, bonded warehouse, FTZs operations and Free Trade Agreements is an advantage

Personal Characteristics

The successful candidate will possess the following personal characteristics:

- Effective communication and interpersonal skills.
- Awareness and sensitivity to other cultures and ability to effectively work with colleagues in other countries and regions.
- Strong in collaborating, capable of both teamwork and working independently.
- Strong integrity and ethics as well as a strong sense of accountability.