Classification Analyst, Customs & Trade USA (Amer Sports)

US   6 days ago

ID 2024-3783   # of Openings 1   Category General Management   Workplace Type Remote

Overview

Amer Sports is a dynamic, global sports company offering passionate achievement-oriented professionals the chance to succeed and flourish in an international environment. Our globally recognized brands include Salomon, Wilson, Atomic, Arc'teryx, and ENVE. We are a company where ambitious, competent, and motivated people can make their mark. All our team members are ready to strive for the best of the company and to win together. Just like our customers, we are dedicated to an active lifestyle and sports. Join us.

What You'll Do

We are currently seeking a Classification & Origin Analyst to work closely with our Amer Sports brands, import/export governmental agencies, and various service providers in the Americas. This role will be responsible for HS classification, origin determination, and free trade agreement eligibility for global markets as part of the classification team within our global Tax Department. Specific responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Determine the classification of all newly developed products with a focus on textile and apparel items.
- Be in close contact with the apparel development teams at Amer Sports.
- Regularly provide figures to our financial partners for product costs simulations.
- Support various departments to identifying the best sourcing areas with an "absolute best cost" approach.
- Submit requests for rulings and "Binding Tariff Information" to the various customs authorities.
- Support new system initiatives to build an efficient and automated classification process.
- Support other initiatives as part of the Global Tax & Customs Department.

What We're Looking For

We are looking for a candidate with 3+ years of strong experience in international trade and customs including previous experience in apparel/customs classification. Qualified candidates should have a degree in International Trade, Supply Chain, or equivalent work experience. Knowledge of International Trade regulations is a must. Other qualifications include:

- Effective communication and interpersonal skills and proven ability to partner with team members across geographies
- Conceptual, analytical and problem solving skills, coupled with a high energy level.
- Awareness and sensitivity to other cultures and ability to effectively work with colleagues in other countries and regions.
- Creativity & innovation and pro-active thinking are important skills for this role

- Strong integrity and ethics.
- Strong in collaborating, capable of both teamwork and working independently.
- Good knowledge of MS Office package
- Knowledge of Amber Road/E2open is preferred
- Knowledge of SAP is a plus

The Analyst will primarily support brands and team members in Los Angeles, Portland, and Vancouver, BC. This role can be performed remotely or in-office at one of these locations. Candidates must be able to provide support in the PST time zone and be available for occasional meetings with our team members in Europe and Asia as needed.

What We'll Provide

We offer a great working environment in the sports industry with talented & passionate colleagues all over the world! Benefit and perks include:

- Medical, dental and vision
- 401k with company match
- Life insurance
- Pre-tax transit discounts
- Paid maternity/paternity leave
- Discounts on Amer Sports products
- Summer hours

Amer Sports is an equal opportunity employer. Qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, protected veteran status, disability, or any other legally protected characteristics.

Options

Apply for this job online

Email this job to a friend

Share on your newsfeed