

Certified International Trade Logistics Specialist®

Certification Level: Intermediate

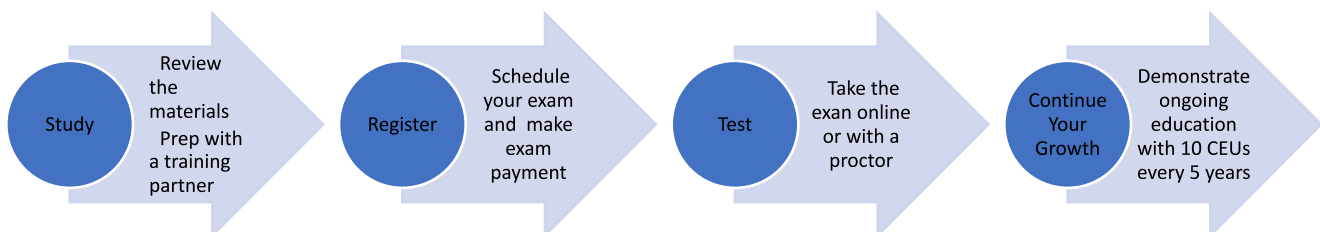

Certification Examination: Four-Hour Proctored Examination

Exam Cost: $300.00

Career Opportunities	This is the ideal certification for those seeking careers in international trade. Examples of these positions includes: • Distribution Manager • Logistics Specialist • Supply Chain Specialist • Logistics Support Administrator • Logistics Analyst • Logistics Manager • Distribution/Logistics Director • Supply Chain Coordinator • Logistics Support Technician • Logistics Clerk
-----------------------------	--

This certification demonstrates mastery and utilization of importing and exporting terminology and that the holder can apply best practices in the logistics aspects of the movement of goods and services to international customers.

Take the exam and demonstrate your international trade knowledge:

For more information, please visit www.industrycertification.org

Certification Board of Governors - International Trade Certification

CITLS®

Knowledge Requirements

The following topics are defined as within this body of knowledge. They reflect the knowledge assessed within this certification. A person holding this certification will have satisfactorily passed an examination to demonstrate a high degree of knowledge of these knowledge requirements.

Industry Standard: Demonstrate relevant knowledge of international trade logistics processes, including the use of terminology and concepts.

Topic	Knowledge Requirement
Logistics	Define and describe the elements of a supply chain. Define and describe the modes of transportation utilized in logistics, to include air, ground, ocean, and intermodal transportation for international freight. Define and describe the tools of international logistics and distribution to facilitate international trade. Discuss containers and shipping as they related to intermodal shipping. Describe packaging and crating requirements. Identify best practices and regulations related to labeling. Discuss technology used to monitor and control logistics processes.
Warehousing	Define and describe bonded customs warehouses and free trade zones. Describe automation practices. Differentiate between warehouse types. Match warehousing systems to organizational needs. Assess benchmarking processes. Discuss the layout and design of warehouses. Describe vendor integration, technology, and warehouse utilization and workforce design.
Documentation	Describe and use the documents associated with import/export. Assess documentation needs of international trade.
Regulation	Identify and understand regulations related to international trade. Assess the applicability of trade regulation for different situations. Identify the scope of regulatory agencies. Describe common treaties and agreements that impact the documentation processes in international trade. Identify marking and other agency requirements.
Terminology	Define and utilize the terminology used in the import/export of goods and services, including Incoterms®
Risk	List risk factors in international trade logistics. Analyze methods of risk management and hedging techniques. Identify regulations and best practices related to insurance and liabilities. Manage claims for damage and loss.
International Finance	Define and select financial tools, including letters of credit and other forms of payment and credit terms. Describe the principles used to set a product's price in a foreign market.

Ethical Practices

Define and apply strategies for ethical operations and critical thinking and data driven decision making.